Mr. Geo. Kohn, of the Columbia State staff, was a visitor to Fort Mill Monday.

Dr. Crawford was up from Lancaster Monday on professional business.

The regular Wednesday prayer service will be held in the Presbyterian church this evening at 8:15 o'clock.

Misses Susie White and Della Mills, of this place, are attending the State summer school at Winthrop.

The two cotton mills here shut down on Monday, the 4th.

Miss Lillian Flowers, of Rock Hill, is visiting the Misses Harris, on White street.

Misses Maud and Nannie Thompson and Tommie Culp returned home Thursday, after a visit to relatives in Bethel.

Mr. J. M. Grier exhibited on Friday a ripe home-grown tomato which tipped the scales at 1 pound.

Don't forget the big farmer's institute and picnic at Rock Hill on the 15th inst.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hughes, who are visiting relatives here, has been seriously ill for a few days.

Dr. C. B. Stephenson, of Charlotte, was a visitor to Fort Mill Monday.

Mr. W. A. Watson was down from Charlotte Sunday.

Mrs. L. J. Massey is at the bedside of her father, Maj. J. W. Wilson, who is seriously ill at his home in Morganton, N. C.

Miss Mary Young has returned to her home in this place, after a several months visit to her sister, Mrs. R. V. Macon, of Savannah, Ga.

Mr. Al. Thornwell, of this place, has accepted the position of electrician with the cotton mills at Lancaster.

Prof. R. J. Herndon, of Yorkville, spent several days of the past week in this community, working in the interest of an excursion which he is to run to Charleston in a few days.

An ice cream supper was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Patterson Monday night which a large crowd of young people attended and all reported an enjoyable time.

The Rev. Hartsaw, an evangelist, is conducting a protracted meeting under a large tent near the village of the Fort Mill Mfg. Co. The attendance at each service is said to be large and much good is being accomplished.

Little Miss Ruby Wortells was the gracious hostess at a charming party last Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, celebrating her fourth birthday. Quite a number of little boys and girls were invited to share the joys of this happy occasion.

During the past week The Times has received quite a number of cotton blooms from the farmers hereabouts. The first bloom to reach us came in last Wednesday from the farm of Mr. Lee Aiken, two miles west of town. Since then Messrs. J. B. Erwin, P. R. Collins and others have reported blooms. All the farmers say their cotton is growing nicely.

Mr. E. B. Mobley, of Rock Hill, aged 64 years, fell dead upon the street there Tuesday afternoon of last week at 5 o'clock. Mr. Mobley was one of the most prominent and best known citizens of this section, having lived at Rock Hill for many years. He was a native of Chester county, and went from that county to the Confederate war, being a member of Company A, 6th, South Carolina Infantry, and served during the entire war as a private.

Mr. J. M. Harris received a shipment of several hundred young bass fish Thursday from the government and carried them to his home in Pleasant Valley, where he has one of the largest and best fish ponds in this section. The fish when taken from the train seemed lively and in good condition and we hope that Mr. Harris will be successful with them.

Whether The Times special notice of last week had anything to do with the finding of Dr. J. B. Mack's "Lost Horse," makes little difference, since the animal has been found. It was on Thursday that young Murray Mack was strolling through his father's pasture and unexpectedly ran upon the faithful old animal quietly asleep in a gully. It is not known whether the horse was killed by falling into the gully or died from natural causes.

The tinner is now at work roofing the new addition to the Millfort mill.

There was but one transfer of Fort Mill real estate recorded in the office of the county auditor during the month of June. This was Mrs. Mary T. Denton to Dr. T. S. Kirkpatrick, one lot, consideration $200.

All arrangements have been perfected for the big picnic today on the grounds of the local graded school. The occasion has been widely advertised, numerous invitations sent out, and it is expected that a larger crowd than at any similar gathering yet held will be present.

The following Fort Mill men have been drawn as petit jurors to serve during the approaching term of the court of general sessions which convenes at Yorkville July 18th, the Hon. Earnest Gary presiding: R. P. Harris, C. T. Crook, W. H. Bailey, R. L. Armstrong, W. Mc. Culp, W. M. Atkins.

The county chain gang is now in the vicinity of Rock Hill. The convict camp is located on the Cowan place and the force is engaged in grading the road from the Cowan place to the J. G. Steele place preparatory to putting down the macadam.

A very interesting game of ball which was witnessed by several Fort Mill people, was played Monday morning in Lancaster by the teams of that town and Camden. Mr. E. S. Parks, of this place was engaged as catcher for Lancaster, and not only did he do excellent work behind the bat, but made two of the six runs which Lancaster scored. Camden crossed the home plate but four times.

Dr. J. H. Thornwell will be absent on next Sabbath, in order to fill an appointment at Lancaster, and Dr. J. B. Mack has consented to preach in the Presbyterian church here. Dr. Mack will deliver a special sermon at 6 o'clock in the afternoon, his subject being "Anglo-Israel," and all the members and public are requested to be present.

The Charlotte News of Monday says: "Will Ingram, who said he was from Fort Mill, S. C., was arrested by Officer Sykes at the station last evening. He had drawn a pistol on two colored boys. He was bound over to court in the sum of $55 for carrying concealed weapons and fined $5 and the costs for disorderly conduct." Mr. Ingram promptly put up the required bond and returned to his home here Monday afternoon.

From the present condition of the public cemetery it would seem that our people had entirely forgotten their duty in caring for this sacred spot. Many of the squares are overgrown with weeds and grass, many graves need rebuilding, and the flowers, too, show need of attention. As this is but a very small service to those who we have placed at rest, we should not longer neglect our duty in this matter. Those who are unable to pay for cleaning off their lots, could by a few hours work each afternoon, soon have them in nice shape.

L. J. MASSEY,

REMODELING SALE.

In a few days the workmen will commence an addition to our store of 40 feet. Also to remodel the inside of the old room. We want as few goods in the way as possible. We will not attempt to give prices, but want you to call and see for yourself if we do not mean every word we say. We must have less goods to handle as the entire rear end of the old store will be torn away. Thanking you for the best June trade we ever had and asking you to help make this the banner July, we are yours truly,

MEACHAM & EPPS.

Shoes! Shoes! Shoes!

Our shoes fit the foot and our prices don't pinch the purse. See us for the next pair. A new stock just in. Ask your neighbors if they don't buy their Shoes from us. Get on the band wagon and help others sing the praise of wearing shoes that fit the feet and don't pinch the purse. We sell only the best goods in the latest styles.
